

Company Policy Overview

Property Rental Company - Policies & Terms

XYZ Company operates residential rental properties and serviced apartments condo, loft, house, studio, villa, townhouse, flat, cottage, bungalow, penthouse the Premises. This document sets out the Company's internal policies and the standard Terms & Conditions that apply to all tenants/guests („Tenant,") unless otherwise agreed in writing. Use this as a master reference; attach property- or jurisdiction-specific addenda where required.

Purpose. To provide clarity and consistency on screening, payments, deposits, maintenance, inspections, privacy, cancellations/refunds, early termination, dispute resolution, and compliance with applicable law. This is not legal advice; always seek a qualified local lawyer's review before implementation.

Document Architecture. Sections 1_11 are policies; Sections 12_15 include contractual terms, dispute resolution, and annexed templates. House Rules and Fee Schedules are attached as updatable schedules referenced by the Agreement.

Compliance & Non-Discrimination. Company applies policies uniformly regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, family status, or other protected classes as required by law. Exceptions require senior approval and documentation.

Versioning. Maintain a changelog with dates, approvers, and a summary of edits. Keep all signed Agreements, notices, inspections, and communications in the tenant file for the statutory retention period.

Definitions & Interpretation

Property Rental Company - Policies & Terms

Key Definitions. Agreement,, means the signed tenancy/occupancy agreement including annexes and schedules.

“Premises” means the unit and any appurtenant areas named in the Agreement.

“Deposit” means the refundable security deposit held subject to lawful deductions.

“Business Day” means a day other than a weekly holiday or public holiday.

Interpretation. Headings are for convenience only and do not affect interpretation. References to including mean including without limitation. Conflicts are resolved by the most specific document; property-specific addenda prevail over this master policy where law requires.

Communication. Notices may be given by email and messaging apps (e.g., WhatsApp) if the Agreement permits. Keep a clear audit trail. Time periods are counted in calendar days unless stated otherwise.

Scope & Applicability

Property Rental Company - Policies & Terms

Applicability. These policies apply to (i) long-term residential leases, and (ii) short-term stays in serviced apartments operated by the Company. For mixed-use or commercial tenancies, attach separate terms.

Jurisdictions. Rental housing laws vary by country/province/city. The Company will localize deposits, notice periods, entry rights, and required disclosures to each jurisdiction.

Updates. House Rules, Fee Schedules, and operational SOPs may be updated on notice as permitted by law. Material changes to core money terms require bilateral written agreement.

Admissions & Screening Policy

Property Rental Company - Policies & Terms

Eligibility. Applicants must be 18+ (or legal age), present valid government ID, and provide verifiable information. For long-term leases, obtain income proof (typically 2.5-3x monthly rent) and prior landlord references; conduct lawful credit/background checks where permitted.

Consistency. Apply the same objective criteria to all applicants. Keep adverse action records when applications are declined. Do not make statements that could be considered discriminatory or steering.

Holding Deposits. If accepted, a holding deposit may be taken to reserve the unit. If the applicant withdraws after acceptance but before signing/move-in, the holding deposit may be forfeited to cover losses, subject to local law and explicit disclosure.

Pricing, Fees & Payments

Property Rental Company _ Policies & Terms

Rent & Rate Changes. Base rent is due on the stated due date; increases follow legal notice requirements. Short-stay nightly rates may vary dynamically based on demand.

Fees. Common fees include: cleaning (post-stay), administration, parking, pet, additional occupant, key/FOB replacement, lockout, utility overage, and late fees where lawful. Publish fees in a schedule attached to the Agreement.

Payment Methods. Prefer cashless methods (bank transfer, card). Define chargeback handling and payer-of-record. Establish a grace period (e.g., 3 days). After grace, apply late fees as permitted by law; issue reminder notices with a cure date.

Security Deposit Policy

Property Rental Company - Policies & Terms

Deposit Amount. Typically one month's rent for long-term tenancies; for short-stays, a pre-authorization or fixed deposit may be used. Comply with statutory caps and interest requirements where applicable.

Purpose & Use. The Deposit may cover unpaid rent, late fees, damages beyond ordinary wear, excessive cleaning, missing items, utility overages, and key/FOB replacement. The Deposit is not a substitute for final month's rent unless expressly agreed.

Move-In/Out Condition. Use a checklist with dated photos/videos. Tenants must promptly report defects upon possession. At move-out, conduct a comparative inspection and provide an itemized statement with invoices or quotes.

Return Timeline. Return the remaining Deposit within the legally required period (e.g., 10-14 business days), less lawful deductions. Provide a dispute window (e.g., 7 days) for the Tenant to respond.

Maintenance & Repairs SOP

Property Rental Company - Policies & Terms

Reporting. Tenants report maintenance via the designated portal/email/messaging number. Classify tickets: emergency (e.g., gas leaks, no water, electrical hazards), urgent (e.g., major appliance failure), and standard.

Response Targets. Emergency: respond within 4 hours; urgent: within 24 hours; standard: within 48 hours. Communicate ETAs and entry windows. Use qualified, insured vendors and maintain service records.

Approvals. Auto-approve repairs up to a threshold (e.g., [$ 5000]). For larger works or tenant-caused damage, seek authorization as needed. Tenants must provide access during reasonable hours.

Inspections & Right of Entry

Property Rental Company Policies & Terms

Routine Inspections. Conduct move-in, periodic (e.g., quarterly/biannual), and move-out inspections within lawful limits. Provide prior written notice (e.g., at least 24 hours) and enter during business hours unless emergency conditions exist.

Showings. With proper notice, entry may be made to show the Premises to prospective tenants, buyers, or contractors. Respect privacy and minimize disruption.

Lockouts & Access Media. Keep a log of keys/FOB's. A reasonable fee may be charged for lockouts and replacements as disclosed in the Fee Schedule.

House Rules & Occupancy

Property Rental Company - Policies & Terms

Occupancy Limits. The Premises may not exceed the stated maximum occupants. Guests staying beyond the permitted nights require prior approval and may incur additional fees.

Quiet Enjoyment. Observe quiet hours (e.g., 10:00 pm- 7:00 am). No parties or nuisance. Follow building/HOA rules. Smoking only in designated areas if allowed. Dispose of waste properly and follow recycling rules.

Pets. State whether pets are allowed, the types/number permitted, vaccination requirements, and any pet deposit/fees. Service and assistance animals are handled per applicable law.

Utilities, Services & Safety

Property Rental Company Policies & Terms

Utilities. Specify which utilities are included and any caps. For submetered or postpaid utilities, provide meter readings at move-in/out and the settlement process.

Internet/TV. Provide network details if included; prohibit misuse (e.g., illegal downloads).

Safety. Maintain smoke/CO detectors where required. Provide emergency contacts and safety instructions. Tenants must not disable safety devices or overload circuits. Report hazards immediately.

Privacy & Data Protection

Property Rental Company - Policies & Terms

Data Collected. Application data, identity documents, contact details, payment records, access logs, CCTV in common areas (no surveillance inside private units).

Purpose & Retention. Use data for screening, tenancy administration, compliance, and security. Retain only as long as necessary or as required by law. Provide access/correction rights where applicable.

CCTV & Smart Devices. Disclose any cameras in common areas and any smart locks/sensors. Never install cameras inside private living spaces. Follow data security best practices and restrict access to authorized personnel.

Cancellation & Refund Policy

Property Rental Company - Policies & Terms

Scope. This policy applies to short-stay bookings and any prepaid amounts for move-ins.

Your Customized Refund Tiers (supersedes prior drafts):

- 15+ days before check-in/start: 90% refund of fees actually received (excluding non-recoverable third-party costs and bank/card fees, if any).
- 7-14 days before check-in/start: 50% refund.
- 4 - 6 days before check-in/start: 40% refund.
- under 3 days before check-in/start: 25% refund.

Refund Method & Timing. Refunds are processed to the original payment method within [7-10] business days after confirmation. Currency conversion or third-party charges are non-refundable where unavoidable.

Force Majeure/Unavailability. If the Premises become unavailable due to events beyond the Company's control (e.g., severe damage, government order), the Company will (i) relocate to a comparable unit if possible, or (ii) refund unused nights in full—this is the maximum liability.

Early Termination & Relocation

Property Rental Company-Policies & Terms

Long-Term Leases. Tenants may request early termination by giving at least 30 days, written notice and paying an early termination fee equal to [one month's rent], plus unpaid amounts and documented damages, provided rent is current and the Premises are surrendered in acceptable condition.

Mutual Release. Upon payment and handover, both parties sign a mutual release for future claims except for undisclosed damages or fraud. Keys/FOBs must be returned; utilities settled through the termination date.

Relocation. For necessary repairs or operational reasons, Company may offer a comparable unit at the same rate where feasible; if declined, normal termination rules apply.

Disputes, Notices & Governing Law

Property Rental Company — Policies & Terms

Notices. Serve notices to the emails/addresses specified in the Agreement. Notices via email/messaging are deemed received on the next Business Day if sent after 6:00 pm local time.

Dispute Resolution. Escalate complaints internally first. If unresolved, the parties agree to mediation administered by an agreed provider. If still unresolved, binding arbitration or competent courts per the Governing Law clause will apply, as permitted by local law.

Governing Law & Venue. The Agreement is governed by the law of the stated jurisdiction; exclusive venue is the local courts unless mandatory law provides otherwise. Severability ensures that unenforceable terms are replaced with lawful equivalents.
